CATALOG DESCRIPTION

A composition course on the writing process including description, narration, exposition, and argument. Course stresses unity, development, organization, coherence, and other basic writing skills necessary for college writing. (3 hours lecture)
Prerequisite: Grade of “C” or better in ENG 22 or placement into ENG 100 or approval of designated Language Arts representative.

ACTIVITIES REQUIRED AT SCHEDULED TIMES OTHER THAN CLASS TIME

   ○ Every week, students will have an assignment due Monday night at 11:55 pm on Laulima.
2. Two Conferences with Instructor
   ○ Twice during the semester, students are required to conference with the instructor (face-to-face or via telephone) to discuss aspects of their writing such as assignments, drafts, revisions, grammar or other technical issues.
   ○ As often as possible, I will try to work in conferences during writing and revising sessions in class. Nevertheless, students are encouraged to schedule a phone conference or meet with me face-to-face outside of class for personal, one-on-one attention and feedback
      ■ For phone conferences, students must have access to a computer and high-speed internet.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (SLOs)

1. Write complex and well-reasoned compositions in language, style, and structure appropriate to particular purposes and audiences.

2. Engage in a writing process that includes exploring ideas, considering multiple points of view, developing and supporting a thesis, revising with the help of peer and instructor feedback, editing, and proofreading.

3. Find, evaluate, integrate, and properly document information from libraries, the Internet, and other sources, with an eye for reliability, bias, and relevance.

4. Read for main points, perspective, and purpose, and analyze the effectiveness of a variety of rhetorical strategies in order to integrate that knowledge into their writing.
WRITTEN COMMUNICATION HALLMARKS

1. Introduce students to different forms of college-level writing, including, but not limited to, academic discourse, and guide them in writing for different purposes and audiences.

2. Provide students with guided practice of writing processes–planning, drafting, critiquing, revising, and editing–making effective use of written and oral feedback from the faculty instructor and from peers.

3. Require at least 5000 words of finished prose–equivalent to approximately 20 typewritten/printed pages.

4. Help students develop information literacy by teaching search strategies, critical evaluation of information and sources, and effective selection of information for specific purposes and audiences; teach appropriate ways to incorporate such information, acknowledge sources and provide citation.

5. Help students read texts and make use of a variety of sources in expressing their own ideas, perspectives, and/or opinions in writing.

ATTENDANCE POLICY & TARDIES

Absences:
Students are allowed up to 2 absences without penalty.

➢ Even if you are absent, however, you are still expected to complete whatever assignment is due that day and get it in to me a.s.a.p.

➢ Responsible students will send me an email about any absences or expected tardy in advance. This allows me to help you stay on top of your assignments and it makes you seem super responsible, which is always what you want your teachers to think of you.

A 3rd and 4th absence will result in a loss of 25 points each to the total grade.

Any student who misses 5 classes will likely not pass the course.

Tardies or Leaving Early:
I'll be starting class on time. If you're late, please just come in quietly and try not to disturb the class. If you need to leave early, please let me know in advance; otherwise, I'll think I did something to offend you and I'll feel terrible. If a student misses a significant amount of class, it will likely count as an absence.

Dropping a Class:
It is your responsibility to learn about and follow the official procedure for dropping classes. If you stop participating in this class but do not follow up to officially drop it, you will receive a failing grade. Instructors cannot withdraw anyone from their classes.

DEADLINES

Assignments are due on the dates posted. This is for your benefit and mine. Students who get behind on assignments are more likely to drop out. Thus, in every effort to encourage you to get work in on time:

2-day Grace Period
Because I would like to read the best work that you can produce and it is in your best interest to get the highest grade possible, students will be allowed a 2-day grace period on any 2nd draft.

However, after 2 days, assignment will lose ½ a letter grade for every day it is late.

Stay on task everyone, and please contact me in advance if you have any scheduling issues. Plan ahead for the unexpected. Students are accountable for staying on top of the semester schedule. Technological or other problems will arise. Students should immediately communicate with the instructor if an emergency may affect the ability to meet course deadlines.

PLAGIARISM AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic honesty is fundamental in a college environment. You are expected to fulfill your academic obligations through honest and independent effort. The work you submit for this course must be your own. Dishonesty, cheating, plagiarism, or knowingly furnishing false information to the college are regarded as particularly serious offenses. Cases of dishonesty will result in a grade of "zero" for the assignment and may result in an "F" for the course. In flagrant cases, the penalty may be dismissal from the college after proper due-process proceedings.

DISABILITIES ACCOMMODATION STATEMENT
