ii. Announcements
We now have a KKP Facebook page that you can search for. Remember to like the page and Kaulana will keep it update with announcements, events, and pictures. KKP has a new email address at kumupali@hawaii.edu and calendar of events. The webpage has been updated with new officers, events calendar, and need to update membership.
We had one protocol workshop and the 2nd was canceled. There will be practice every Tuesday & Thursday until the Maori visit. Please come the workshops. Kaulana will email what was covered in protocol practice to everyone who couldn’t make it. Overview of the day events and agenda are forthcoming. Please dress in aloha attire with kīhei. Malos are welcomed!
A menu and agenda is being finalized for the cultural exchange. KKP will help to serve food and everyone will be assigned to kuleana. Tentative agenda overviewed.

III. Review Request of Funds Applications
We have 13 requests that came in along with 4 more from today. We have a total of 17 requests of funds applications. Here are the proposals:
Kaʻala has requested (line 14) $3000 for Teresa Bright. She has been bringing indigenous instruments to WCC and into the music classes. Request is to pay her $1,000 per semester to use her instruments, ‘ike and kōkua. Harmony Laufo, a piano accompanist would be paid $1,800 (line 16) or 10 hours a week to help music classes. The request would pay for classes, music events, and office hours.
On January 16th there is Hawaiian Jazz event (line 15) requesting $2,500. Last year the event made money through donation. This was held to pay the balance of the piano. The piano cost $10,000 and the concert was done to pay off the $7,500 balance. They now have $3,000 left to pay off. The request would be an honorarium for travel, food, drink, and lei. A request for $1,000 for Kanikapila Earth Day (line 17) to pay for honorarium going towards Paepae o Heʻeia or any guests from the community. They will use music to highlight sustainability.
There was a discussion on logistics of paying Teresa Bright. We cannot retro-pay. They must hold workshops open to everyone. Ardis offered Title III funding for speakers on Earth Day. Funding includes $200 honorarium for speakers. Title III funding includes the event being held in ‘Olelo Hawaii. We were able to cut #17. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $1,500 of the initial requests for Teresa Bright, $1,500 for an evening of Hawaiian Jazz, and $1,800 for piano accompanist. See allocations for Kaʻala on lines 14-17.

Makanani has requested $2,200 for hula supplies. Kalawaia suggest that we keep hula budget to grow hula curriculum. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $2,200 for the hula program (line 6). Kalani has requested $1,281 for an ice machine in Hale Aʻo. KKP members have suggested a lower price for the ice machine. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $1,281 for the ice machine (line 1).

Gus and Winston have requested $4,000 for kīheipua mālāʻai construction and maintenance. A discussion was held on some monies available through gear up to pay for this. Some of these items are in Kalawaia's budget. There is $689 in GearUp to pay for hula mound rock. Per Tommy a quality tiller is $500-$600. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $2,000 for Kīheipua Mālāʻai Construction and Maintenance (line 2).

Kalawaia has requested $1,135 for Hawaiian studies. A food processor is $400 and will perhaps share with Leināʻala. Members of KKP have agreed to pay $735 for the Hawaiian Studies General Request Fund (line 3). The Hale Building Program has requested $2,110 for supplies. Members of KKP have asked to remove the 5 draw-knives, grinders, mason tools, cement mixer, chainsaw, pants, and shields. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $785 for Hale Building Program (line 4).

Carving Program has requested $6,230. Members of KKP have asked to remove orbital sanders, grinders, routers, router tables, 2 chainsaw mils, chain sharpener, and sand paper reduced to $400. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $3,030 for the Carving Program (line 5). Hawaiian studies have requested $1,100 for mālā request. Members of KKP have suggested to removed to weed whackers. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $300 for the Hawaiian Studies Mālā request (line 7).

Makanani and Nick Logue have requested $1,950 for the Hawaiian Theater Production. A discussion was held that Nick may possibly have money in Humanities. Members of KKP have agreed to fund $1000 for the Hawaiian Theater Production on the writing of script (line 8).

Kaulana has requested $3,450 for WCC Kāhili. Members of KKP have suggested removal of $200 for supplies. The instructor will be kept.
